'SAINTS" CAPTURE A SINNER'S

Robert Venn says the "sainte" who are members of the sect of "feet wash ing" Bapti-ts have broken up his home. His wife left the Vann home a week ago last Monday when she don-ned a purple robe with "wings," and joined her fellowchurchmen in cele-brating the feast of the Passover. She says the left him because he beat her and burned her cicthes. She had him arrested Thursday on a charge of assault and battery.

Vann denied the charges. He said that his wife left him because he would not join the "feet-washing" Baptists. The Vanus are negroes, as are also most of the "feet washers."

"My wife is crazy," said Vanu.
"She is a member of the Church of God and Saints of Christ. They're all crazy. They spend a lot of time wash-ing each other's feet and hugging and kissing. That church has broken up more than one home.

"The 'saltt' wear purple robes with 'wings' sewed on them. They look like hoot owls."

Vann was held for a further hearing next Monday. He now lives with his

"Bishop" William S. Crowdy, a portly negro, who was formerly a chef, is "prophet" of the "saints," who are members of the Church of God.
"Yes, 'I've heard that Vann and his wife have separated," said the "bishop." "It is not the fault of the church. We have been much assailed and maligued. We have broken up no homes, We have a mem'ership of 1300 in this city. We invalue threatened in tals city. Well we been threstened by some people to this vicinity, but have said nothing. We shall continue our work, and our wespons will be the wespons of God."

The "bishop" is in charge of a grocery store on Fitzwater street. The awning in front bears the sign, "Church of God." The profits from the stree help to support the church.—[Philadelphia North American.

WHALES LEFT HIGH AND DRY .- A school of eight whales, one large and the others small, entered the harbor of Port Royal, S. C., a few days ago and got into trouble near Paris Point, They were feeding near shore and six of the smaller ones entered a slough at the deepert point. The big whale came next and is sup posed to have touched bottom, for she made a mighty flounder, churned up water and mud and finally succeeded in turning around in the nel flanked by mud-banks, and went plunging to sea, accompanied by one small whale.

Those enclosed by the mudbanks were not so fortunate. The tide was rapidly ebbing and they did not take he alarm till cut off from retreat. Their fractic charges one way and another only got them farther out of water. All perished before low tide.

There are no conveniences in that section for securing the oil, so what would have been very valuable in some other quarters has gone to wasts.

These are the first whales that have appeared at Port Royal for many years.

SOFT HEART AND SOFT HEAD .-President Roosevelt showed his aptness at repartee yesterday. An Arkensas man asked for an embezzler's pardon. It was refused. "The trouble don. It was refused. "The trouble with you," said the disappointed applicant, mournfully, to the President, "Is that you have not a soft heart." "I've found that, in office," was the reply, "a soft heart and a soft head too often go together." The subject was drapped. dropped.

A Valuable Medicine

For Coughs and Colds in Children. "I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have re-Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colde. It is especially effective for children and it seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well plessed as myself over the results." For sale by Richard Gibbson druggist.

Neglect Means Danger. Neglect Means Danger.

Don't neglect billioneness and constipation.
